Other?	<input type="radio"/> Yes <input checked="" type="radio"/> No

Explanations of policies for each "yes" checked above:

Renters who live in subsidized housing where their heat is included in their rent, do not qualify for a heating assistance grant.

Renters who live in subsidized housing who pay a heating vendor for their heat and receive a utility allowance will receive 50% of their grant. These individuals will only receive 50% of their grant because they are already receiving a utility allowance and are not paying 100% of their utility costs.

Renters who live in subsidized housing and pay for their own heat and do not receive a utility allowance will qualify for a regular heating assistance grant.

We have a priority system outside of Crisis Applications which is as follows:

1. Elderly
2. Disabled
3. Young Children
4. Date Stamp Order

We provide applications to elderly and disabled applicants who applied in the prior fiscal year for heating assistance by mailing out their applications in late August and allowing them to apply as early as September 1st before all other applicants. Families with young children who applied in the previous fiscal year and those who are currently active and receiving Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) are mailed applications around September 23rd prior to the official start of the program on October 1st.

Determination of Benefits 2605(b)(5) - Assurance 5, 2605(c)(1)(B)

2.4 Describe how you prioritize the provision of heating assistance to vulnerable populations, e.g., benefit amounts, early application periods, etc.

Besides mailing out applications to vulnerable populations before the start of the fiscal year, we provide priority processing when applications are received in the following order:

1. Elderly

- 2. Disabled
- 3. Families with young children

Also, if an elderly or disabled person or families with young children (under age 6) apply, they get an extra 2.0 points because they are part of the vulnerable population.

Section 9: Energy Suppliers, 2605(b)(7) - Assurance 7

9.1 Do you make payments directly to home energy suppliers?

Heating Yes No

Cooling Yes No

Crisis Yes No

Are there exceptions? Yes No

If yes, Describe.

Payments are either mailed directly to the vendor, or CITC has an energy assistance account set up with the vendor by which payments are deducted directly from.

Direct payments are made payable to the applicant whose heat is included in their rent and they are not living in subsidized housing.

Exceptions are made for homeless applicants in which a direct payment can be made to them provided that they have been in their same homeless location for 60 day or more.

9.2 How do you notify the client of the amount of assistance paid?

Applicants are mailed a Notice of Approval to their home the same day that their heating assistance grant is approved and the payment is sent to the vendor. The amount received per household varies based on CITC's point system and eligibility factors. The notice details the payment amount to each vendor (some applicants chose to have part of their grant paid towards their electric account).

Applications may take up to 45 days to process and applicants are encouraged to continue to pay their bills while waiting for a decision on their application which is notated in the application for services.

9.3 How do you assure that the home energy supplier will charge the eligible household, in the normal billing process, the difference between the actual cost of the home energy and the amount of the payment?

This is covered in the vendor agreement.

9.4 How do you assure that no household receiving assistance under this title will be treated adversely because of their receipt of LIHEAP assistance?

This is covered in the vendor agreement. CITC investigates any report from applicants of unfair treatment they feel they have suffered.

9.5. Do you make payments contingent on unregulated vendors taking appropriate measures to alleviate the energy burdens of eligible households?

Yes No

If so, describe the measures unregulated vendors may take.

If any of the above questions require further explanation or clarification that could not be made in the fields provided, attach a document with said explanation here.
