LOW INCOME HOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM(LIHEAP) MODEL PLAN Section 10 - Program, Fiscal Monitoring, and Audit

Section 10: Program, Fiscal Monitoring, and Audit, 2605(b)(10)

10.1. How do you ensure good fiscal accounting and tracking of funds?

Cherokee Nation (CN) ensures the oversight of federal funds through CN's organization policies and procedures. CN utilizes multiple levels of preventative procedures in order to ensure compliance with federal and non-federal grantor regulations. These policies and procedures cover all aspects of accounting for grant funds: Accounts Payable, Budgets, Financial Systems, Internal Controls, Payroll, Travel, Cash Management, Grants Development and Grants managements Policies. CN reviews all polices and procedures for update on an annual basis. Necessary updates are made as needed.

CN has Internal Controls (IC) for all accounting processes. There are six different IC narratives that ensure compliance with CN Internal controls: Accounts Payable, Budgeting, Cash, Financial Reporting, Grants, and Payroll. Financial Resources and Grant Services staff members provide effective controls and accountability for all funds through daily monitoring of bank balances, reconciliation of deposits to receipts, and data entry into the accounting system for accounts payable, etc.

Each department is responsible for tracking an inventory of all assets and ensuring that they are used solely for authorized purposes. Cherokee Nation's Infor Financial Management System is a well-developed financial management system capable of accounting for each project CN untertakes seperately and distinctly from other sources of revenue/funding. The Infor system tracks expenditures down to the account and activity level for each grant or contract received by CN. Additionally, once a grant budget has been submitted to the Budgets department, that budget is uploaded into the system. Once the upload is completed, the system will track budgeted versus actual amounts until closeout of the grant.

Cherokee Nation will continue maintaining this standard of operation. Additionally, Cherokee Nation certifies that it shall remain fiscally responsible and control costs, regardless of whether the funds made available for the proposed project are incrementally increased or decreased between fiscal years. The Secretary, Inspector General, Comptroller General, or their duly authorized representatives, shall have access to any books, documents, papers, and records of the program that are pertinent to the proposed project to conduct surveys, audits, and evaluations of the grantee.
