All federal programs administered by the Comanche Nation, including the LIHEAP program will be subjected to standard approved accounting practices. A general ledger and a summary of accounts will be established, a clear accounting trail to documentation and related materials.

The Comanche Nation has employed an accounting firm that monitors all tribal programs and all federal programs. A separate ledger for each program (Federal & Tribal) is kept and monitored by Certified Accountants.

When the Comanche Nation receives a refund from a vendor, the director will view records to see which program funds were used to assist the tribal member; once confirmed then those funds will be credited back to the correct program.

Each LIHEAP grant year and grant component is assigned a specific code to use for accounting purposes. At all times, the program director, with the assistance of our accounting firm is able to monitor program dollars and balances.
